

White Wines

El blanco de Lela del mar, Spain 12%

So dangerously drinkable, you might forget to sip slowly. 6.25 glass / 25 bottle

Darling Cellars, Sauvignon Blanc, South Africa 12.5%

It's Sav, it's cold, its wet—you'll love it. Dull dull dull did I say that out loud? 7.00 / 28

Mont Rocher Viognier, France, 13%

Like a fruit salad with attitude—dry but full of personality. . 7.75 / 31

Campo Flores Organico, Spain, 12%

Organically farmed, heritage grape varieties, a treat from the heart of Spain 26

Vale do Homem Vinho Verde DOC, Portugal, 11.5%

Crisp, refreshing and ever so slightly sparkling. Perfect for long leisurely lunches. 28

Monstable Chardonnay, France, 12.5%

Pale gold and quite racy with notes of apricot, white peach and citrus. 33

Mille 951 Gavi D.O.C.G. Italy , 12.5%

As crisp and refined as an Italian in a tailored suit. . 43

Finca Manzanos Rioja Blanco, Spain, 12.5%

The grapes are picked early, then fermented in oak casks. Too good to share. 35

Reserve Delsol, Picpoul de Pinet, France 13%

Fresh, zesty, and made for seafood—just like a sea breeze in a bottle. . 37

FUNKSTILLE Gruner veltliner, Austria 12.5%

So good, we couldn't keep quiet about it (despite the name). . 35

Kirrihill Clare Valley Riesling Australia, 12.5%

Bright and refreshing, great with seafood 41

Pierre Marchand & Fils Pouilly Fume, France 14%

Forget New Zealand, this is Sauvignon Blanc at its finest! . 43

Domaine De Bonserine Cordrieu A.C.C France, 13%

A very special wine for a special occasion or the best Tuesday ever. 95

Fizzy Wine

Beppe Morchetta Brut Vino Spumante, Italy, 10.5%

A second bottle is probably inevitable. 5.5 glass / 27 bottle

Champagne Pierre Mignon Premier Cru Grande Reserve Brut, France 12%

Tiny producer making wonderful, handcrafted Champagne 75

Biscardo Millesimato Prosecco Rose, Italy, 11.%

Smooth, elegant, and just a little bit flirty. 36

Pink Wines

Pinot Grigio Rose, Italy. 12%

Its dry, pink and Pinot Grigio, Nick wouldn't drink it 6.75 glass / 27 bottle

Biscardo Rosapasso, Italy, 12%

This rose selects Pinot Nero grapes from mineral-rich soils, frankly it's lush. 36

Red Wines

El Tinto de Lela del mar, Spain 13%

Soft and rounded, easy drinking red 6.25 glass / 25 bottle

Los Espinos Merlot, Chile 13.5%

Jam-packed with juicy fruit—Merlot at its most charming. . 7.25 / 29

Cinco Fincas Malbec, Mendoza, Argentina 13.5%

A very quaffable. Blackberry, plum and cherry flavours, this is super juicy, bright and fresh, Maria will fight you for the last bottle 7.50 / 30

Murphy Vineyard Big Rivers Shiraz, Australia 14.5%

Great with red meat, stews or cheese 7.50 / 30

Glenelly Estate Cabernet Franc, South Africa, 14.5%

We could drink this by the bucket... but we'll try to be civilised. . 37

Muga Tinto Reserva , 14.5%

A classic Rioja Reserva, ripe red fruit, subtle spice, with an elegant finish. 45

Smiling Donkey, Portugal, 14%

Tastes like a holiday and helps donkeys—what's not to love? 35

Altopiano Montepulciano d'Abruzzo DOP, Italy, 13%

Red berry fruits, wild cherry, violets, delicate and spicy. Full bodied. 33

Calusari Pinot Noir, Romania 12.5%

If this came from Burgundy, you'd be paying double—what a steal! 32

Neropasso Originale Rosso Corvinone – Corvina – Cabernet, Italy, 13.5%

Like a mini Amarone. Air-dried grapes concentrate the flavours and allow the sugar content to rise. 37

Capel Vale Debut Cabernet – Merlot, Western Australia, 14%

Great with any food, ballsy enough for red meat dishes or award-winning sausage. Nice duck on the label. 37

Chateau Garraud, Grand Vin de Bordeaux France, 14.5%

Fit for a count, but also perfect with steak. 72